The Kerry Giants Chapter One

Once upon a time, there lived a kind couple named Mary and Dick. They dreamed of owning a farm of their own, but good land was scarce.

One day, they heard tales of a family of friendly giants – the Kerry Giants – who loved games and never turned down a challenge. These giants were famous across the land for their booming laughter and their love of dice and cards.

Dick, a clever player with quick hands and a twinkle in his eye, saw his chance.

He boldly challenged the giants to a game where the winner takes the magical farm they owned in Adare, known as The Woodlands.
